

Day 5
Reflection

How would you explain the choices you made in designing your timeline?

What do you hope others will know when they see your work?

If you were going to learn more about timelines, what questions would you ask?
